THE FAMILY DRUG COURT PROGRAM

Is the combined effort of the Judge, the District Attorney's office, the Tulsa County Juvenile Bureau, the Department of Human Services, local substance abuse treatment providers, counseling agencies and the people of Tulsa County.

THE FAMILY DRUG COURT PROGRAM

Is a comprehensive treatment program for parents who have had children removed and placed into DHS custody due to substance abuse.

THOUGH YOU CAN GO THROUGH THE DEPRIVED COURT PROCESS ON YOUR OWN, YOU WILL FACE MANY CHALLENGES:

- You must pay for your UA's
- Infrequent progress reports through court
- A statistically lower chance of sobriety and recovering your children
- Increased chance of relapse

ADVANTAGES OF THE FAMILY DRUG COURT PROGRAM

The Family Drug Court offers a variety of advantages such as:

- Comprehensive treatment
- UA's are paid for by the court
- Incentives for good progress
- The ability to show progress to a judge through frequent court appearances and the normal judge will find out about progress more frequently
- Regular contact with children through Strengthening Families and Celebrating Families and/or CPP in addition to regular visitation (unless programs are against best interest of children)
- Special assistance to enter treatment as required by their Individual Service Plan
- Comradery – You are not alone
