

CHILDREN AND FAMILY FUTURES

Strengthening Partnerships, Improving Family Outcomes

Timeline of Significant Select Publications Authored by Children and Family Futures (CFF) and Colleagues

1997		Bridge Building authored by Mr. Gardner and Dr. Young, the publication is the foundation for CFF's Elements of System Linkages that provides an action plan for collaborative efforts to strengthen links between child welfare and substance use disorder treatment systems.
		Effects of Alcohol and Other Drugs on Children Authored by Dr. Young and published in the Journal of Psychoactive Drugs. The article reviews and summarizes three pathways in which children are affected by substance use disorders: in-utero exposure, environmentally through both family and community influences, and through their own use.
		Implementing Welfare Reform: Solutions to the Substance Abuse Problem In the days following the passage of welfare reform, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, CFF authored this publication highlighting the challenges faced by families and by income support systems to connect family members to substance use disorder treatment.

		Children at the Crossroads authored by Dr. Young and Mr. Gardner. Published in the Public Welfare journal, the article summarizes the state of the art in efforts to improve outcomes for child welfare involved families affected by substance use disorders.
1998		Responding to Alcohol and Other Drug Problems in Child Welfare: Weaving Together Practice and Policy Dr. Young, Mr. Gardner, and Ms. Dennis authored this book, published by the Child Welfare League of America, which was the first publication to classify the system and practice linkages that need to be in place to work across agencies to provide comprehensive services for children and their parents.
2000		Integrating Substance Abuse Treatment and Vocational Services Dr. Young served as the chair of the workgroup to develop this Treatment Improvement Protocol published by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA).

2002	 Navigating the Pathways: Lessons and Promising Practices in Linking Alcohol and Drug Services With Child Welfare Treatment Improvement Publication (TIP) Series 27 Nancy K. Young, Ph.D. Sidney L. Gardner, M.P.A. <small>U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration Center for Substance Abuse Treatment 4501 Research Blvd., Rockville, MD 20850</small>	Navigating the Pathways: Lessons and Promising Practices in Linking Alcohol and Drug Services With Child Welfare CFF was the primary author of this Treatment Improvement Protocol published by SAMHSA. It included a case study of seven sites around the country that had different models of improving programs and outcomes for families affected by parental substance use disorders.
2003	 Substance-Exposed Infants: State Responses to the Problem <small>U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration Center for Substance Abuse Treatment 4501 Research Blvd., Rockville, MD 20850</small>	Substance Exposed Infants: State Responses to the Problem This SAMHSA publication set forth the framework of five points of intervention that has become a seminal approach in the field to organize state and local practice and policy on prevention, pregnancy, newborns, infants, and children across the developmental spectrum together with their families who are affected by substance use during pregnancy.
2006	 SCREENING AND ASSESSMENT FOR FAMILY ENGAGEMENT, RETENTION, AND RECOVERY (SAFERR) <small>U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration Center for Substance Abuse Treatment 4501 Research Blvd., Rockville, MD 20850</small>	Screening and Assessment for Family Engagement and Retention (SAFERR) CFF authored this SAMHSA publication in concert with a working group of experts from across the country. The publication is a “how-to” guide to improve the identification and engagement of families affected by substance use disorders into services and supports.

2007		The Sacramento Dependency Drug Court: Development and Outcomes An article published by the Research and Evaluation Team of CFF on the implementation of the county’s comprehensive programming for children and their parents.
2009		ASFA Ten Years Later: The Issue of Substance Abuse Dr. Young and Mr. Gardner authored this article on their perspectives of the success and challenges in implementing the Adoption and Safe Families Act (ASFA) in regard to families affected by substance use disorders.
2011		Introduction to Cross-System Data Sources in Child Welfare, Alcohol and Other Drug Services, and Courts CFF authored this publication as part of a series of primers that were published by SAMHSA. The series was an introduction to the components, methods, and strategies of collaborative practice in the Elements of System Linkages.
2012		The Regional Partnership Grant (RPG) Program: Enhancing Collaboration, Promising Results CFF staff authored this article on the results of the first round of RPGs including 53 grants and more than 25,000 children served. It was the largest federal investment in this population of families to understand what works to improve systems and family outcomes.

		Facilitating Cross-System Collaboration: A Primer on Child Welfare, Alcohol and Other Drug Services, and Courts CFF authored this publication in a series of primers that were published by SAMHSA as an introduction to the Elements of System Linkages.
2013		Perceptions of Parental Substance Use Disorders in Cross-System Collaboration Among Child Welfare, Alcohol and Other Drugs, and Dependency Court Organizations Dr. Young and colleagues at the University of Southern California School of Social Work authored the results of this study using CFF's Collaborative Values Inventory and staff interviews to understand how values and beliefs affect child welfare practice with families affected by substance use disorders.
2015		Child Welfare Journal Special Issue: Families in Child Welfare Affected by Substance Use, Volumes I and II Dr. Young co-edited with colleague Julie Collins of the Child Welfare League of America this two-volume edition devoted to practice and policy about children and their families affected by substance use disorders and child abuse and neglect.

2016		A Collaborative Approach to the Treatment of Pregnant Women with Opioid Use Disorders: Practice and Policy Considerations for Child Welfare, Collaborating Medical, and Service Providers CFF authored this monograph, published by SAMHSA, which resulted from a workgroup of over 40 national experts on improving services for pregnant women with opioid use disorders and their families.
2017		Serving Families with Child Maltreatment and Substance Use Disorders: A Decade of Learning CFF staff and colleagues from Kentucky authored this article on the lessons of implementing the Sobriety Treatment and Recovery Teams (START) program.
2019		Family Treatment Court Best Practice Standards CFF in partnership with the National Association of Drug Court Professionals authored Best Practice Standards based on the research literature and practice-based lessons from professionals across the country.

		Implementing a Family Centered Approach: For Families Affected by Substance Use Disorders and Involved With Child Welfare Services To help communities move toward family-centered care, CFF authored a three-part series of modules on implementing a family-centered approach for families affected by substance use disorders.
2021		Assessing Values Within Collaborative Interventions for Families with Parental Substance Use and Child Welfare Involvement CFF staff authored this article which provided results from CFF’s Collaborative Values Inventory and instrument development
		Considerations for Developing a Child Welfare Drug Testing Policy and Protocol and Drug Testing for Parents Involved in Child Welfare: Three Key Practice Points CFF authored this two-part series on approaches and lessons from implementing drug testing programs in child welfare practice and policy.